

Contact Information:

Lindsey Ogan
405-595-2400
logan@stridebank.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stride Bank Announces New Wealth Management President

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, September 15, 2025 – Stride Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Brian Hill to President of Stride Bank Wealth Management. Hill previously served as the Chief Fiduciary Officer for the wealth management division.

Hill's expertise, leadership, and unwavering client-centered approach have made him an invaluable asset to Stride Bank Wealth Management, making him an ideal leader to advance the firm's commitment to delivering sophisticated and personalized wealth management solutions.

In his new role, he will guide Stride's team of seasoned financial services professionals to continue providing comprehensive fiduciary services and strengthening Stride's position as a leader in the wealth management space.

"Stride Bank Wealth Management is made up of talented and dedicated team members who deliver best in class service. This group excels in everything from financial planning and portfolio management to estate issues and wealth transition," said Adam Baker, President of the Banking Group at Stride Bank. "We congratulate Brian on this well-deserved promotion, and we are confident he will drive forward our commitment to exceptional client service."

During his time at Stride, Hill has enhanced fiduciary services while expanding client coverage and strategic advice. His career spans two decades in estate planning, probate, trust administration, and wealth preservation strategies. He has also served in leadership roles with the Oklahoma City Estate Planning Council and the Estate Planning Section of the Oklahoma Bar Association.

"Stride Wealth Management has an outstanding team of professionals who keep our clients' interests at the core of everything we do. Our team's deep knowledge and commitment to fiduciary excellence have fostered deep client relationships, helping generations of families navigate complex financial planning while building foundations for long-term financial security and legacy preservation," said Hill. "I am honored to lead this division, and we look forward to building upon 75 years of excellence."

For more information about Stride Wealth Management and its comprehensive financial services, please visit www.stridebank.com.

###

About Wealth Management President Brian Hill

Brian Hill is a seasoned fiduciary professional dedicated to guiding families through the complexities of wealth preservation, helping them establish and execute estate plans that align with their values, objectives, and long-term legacy goals.

Prior to joining Stride Bank, Brian led the estate planning and probate division at a prominent Oklahoma law firm, where he provided strategic counsel to high-net-worth individuals, families, and business owners. His career also includes leadership roles at MidFirst Private Wealth Management, Heritage Trust

Contact Information:

Lindsey Ogan
405-595-2400

logan@stridebank.com

Company, and Bank of America, where he developed deep expertise in fiduciary oversight, trust administration, and wealth transition strategies.

Brian has long been recognized as a leader in the estate planning community. He served on the Oklahoma City Estate Planning Council for eight years, culminating in a term as its President, and has also held officer positions in the Estate Planning Section of the Oklahoma Bar Association. In addition, he is a sought-after speaker, frequently presenting to professional organizations and bar associations on estate planning trends, tax strategies, and fiduciary best practices.

A native of the Oklahoma City metro area, Brian earned his undergraduate degree in Business from the University of Oklahoma and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Tulsa College of Law. His professional affiliations include the Oklahoma Bar Association and various estate planning and wealth management organizations.

About Stride Bank

Founded in 1913, Stride Bank, N.A. has built a steadfast legacy of trust and stability, with over a century dedicated to community banking excellence. Our branch network includes physical locations in Oklahoma and Salt Lake City, where we offer a comprehensive range of financial products and services including consumer and commercial banking, treasury management, mortgage lending, and wealth management. We have a proud history of innovation and are recognized as an industry leader for pioneering sophisticated payment and lending solutions for prominent national brands. We are committed to staying true to our roots while also adapting to meet the evolving needs of our customers. Member FDIC. Equal Housing Lender. Discover more at www.stridebank.com.

###